

5133: Windows Server 2008 Active Directory Implementation and Configuration

TARGET AUDIENCE/DESIGNED FOR:

This course provides students with the information and skills needed to create and administer an Active Directory infrastructure that supports organisational, administrative and security requirements

PREREQUISITES:

Before attending this course students must have gained the following certifications or have the equivalent knowledge:

CompTIA A+

CompTIA Network+

MCTS – Configuring Windows 7

MCTS – Windows 2008 Server

OBJECTIVES:

This course is designed to prepare candidates for exam 70-640 Configuring Windows Server 2008 Active Directory, and is required for the Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist (MCTS): Windows Server 2008 Active Directory, Configuration. This exam also counts as a credit towards Microsoft Certified IT Professional (MCITP – EA): Enterprise Administrator and Microsoft Certified IT Professional (MCITP – SA): Server Administrator

COURSE CONTENT

- Module 1 Overview of Active Directory
- Module 2 Domain Name System (DNS)
- Module 3 Planning and Installing Active Directory
- Module 4 Installing and Managing Trees and Forests
- Module 5 Configuring Sites and Replication
- Module 6 Configuring Active directory Server Roles
- Module 7 Administering Active Directory
- Module 8 Group Policy Objects
- Module 9 Active Directory Security
- Module 10 Active Directory Optimization

COURSE DURATION

This course require about seventy hours of study: