

Course Overview

View course schedule

This course prepares students for the Microsoft exam Microsoft Exam 70-228 Installing, Configuring, and Administering Microsoft SQL Server 2000 Enterprise Edition.

Course Duration	- 50 to 80 Hours
Flexible Study	- Full-time or part-time
Course Code	- 5211-15

Aims and Objectives

This course prepares students for the Microsoft Exam 70-228 Installing, Configuring, and Administering Microsoft SQL Server 2000 Enterprise Edition.

Target Audiences

This course is suitable for those delegates responsible for the installation and administration of a SQL Server based upon Microsoft SQL 2000 Server product.

Prerequisites

In order to benefit from this course students must have completed both Windows XP Professional and Windows Server 2003 courses or have equivalent knowledge.

Course Content

- Module 1: Introduction to Microsoft SQL Server 2000
- Module 2: Installation of SQL Server 2000
- Module 3: Managing SQL Server 2000 Security
- Module 4: Databases and Transaction Logs
- Module 5: SQL Server Backup
- Module 6: SQL Server Database Restore
- Module 7: Automating Administrative Tasks
- Module 8: Data Handling
- Module 9: Maintaining SQL Server 2000
- Module 10: Replication