

Course Overview

View course schedule

This course is designed to prepare MCSE 2003 candidates for the following Microsoft exams.

Exam 70-294: Planning, Implementing, and Maintaining a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 Active Directory Infrastructure

Exam 70-297, Designing a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 Active Directory and Network Infrastructure

Course Duration - 50 to 90 Hours

Flexible Study - Full-time or part-time

Course Code - 5125-15

Aims and Objectives

This course provides students with the information and skills needed to create and administer an Active Directory infrastructure design that supports organisational, administrative and security requirements.

To prepare students for the Microsoft Exam 70-294: Planning, Implementing, and Maintaining a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 Active Directory Infrastructure and Microsoft Exam 70-297: Designing a Microsoft Windows Server 2003 Active Directory and Network Infrastructure.

Target Audiences

This course is for support professionals who will be responsible for installing, configuring, and supporting a Windows 2003 Active Directory infrastructure.

Prerequisites

Before commencing this course students should have completed course 5128 Windows Server 2003 Network Infrastructure or have equivalent knowledge.

Course Content

Module 1: Introduction to Active Directory

Module 2: DNS and Active Directory

Module 3: Active Directory Domains and Forests

Module 4: Creating and Administering User, Group and Computer Accounts

Module 5: Delegating Administrative Authority

Module 6: Implementing, Troubleshooting and Planning Group Policy

Module 7: Managing Software Using Group Policy

Module 8: Multiple Active Directory Domains

Module 9: Active Directory Replication

Module 10: Active Directory Schema Policy

Module 11: Active Directory Maintenance

Module 12: Planning Active Directory