

Course Overview

View course schedule

The course is intended as an aid in preparing for the Microsoft Certified Professional Exam 70-270, Installing, Configuring and Administering Microsoft Windows XP Professional.

Course Duration	- 50 to 80 Hours
Flexible Study	- Full-time or part-time
Course Code	- 5120-15

Aims and Objectives

This course will cover basic installation and mass deployment issues, as well as hardware installation and configuration. In addition, configuration of the user interface will be discussed and many of the new features provided by XP such as Remote Assistance and Remote Desktop.

This course also takes a reasonably in depth look at the TCP/IP network protocol, its addressing scheme and architecture. The course is also intended as an aid in preparing for the Microsoft Certified Professional Exam 70-270: Installing, Configuring and Administering Microsoft Windows XP Professional.

Target Audiences

This course is intended for administrators and network professionals responsible for the installation, deployment and maintenance of Windows XP Professional. The course will cover basic installation and mass deployment issues, as well as hardware installation and configuration.

Prerequisites

In order to gain the most from this course students must have gained the following certifications or have the equivalent knowledge:

CompTIA A+
CompTIA Network+

Course Content

- Module 1: Introduction to Windows XP
- Module 2: Installing Windows XP Professional
- Module 3: Unattended Installations
- Module 4: Hardware Installation and Configuration
- Module 5: Disk Management
- Module 6: Managing the File Systems
- Module 7: The Windows XP Boot Process
- Module 8: Workgroups and Security
- Module 9: Desktop Configuration
- Module 10: TCP/IP Configuration
- Module 11: Name Resolution
- Module 12: Remote Access Users
- Module 13: Printing
- Module 14: Mobile Computing
- Module 15: Monitoring the System