

Course Overview

View course schedule

The MCSE is the benchmark certification for IT professionals in a networking environment. This type of certification is ideal for those who want to progress into specialist IT roles such as Systems Analyst, Network Analyst and Technical Consultant.

Course Duration	- 420 hours
Flexible Study	- Full-time or part-time
Course Code	- 1166850030

Aims and Objectives

To install, configure and troubleshoot Microsoft Windows Networks.
Design and maintain stable and secure Microsoft networking solutions.
Design, install, configure and troubleshoot Active Directory Systems.
Perform advanced network administration tasks.
Implement all elements in a Microsoft network.

Target Audiences

Individuals needing to design, implement or support Microsoft Windows-family operating system products.

Prerequisites

1-2 years of networking experience working within a Windows network environment.
6 Months experience with Windows XP Operating System.

Course Content

This course is made up of the following:
Windows XP Professional - Installation, Configuration, and Administration.
Windows Server 2003 - Management and Administration.
Windows Server 2003 - Active Directory Service.
Windows Server 2003 - Network Infrastructure, Implementation and Administration.
Microsoft Exchange 2003 - [Elective]
Microsoft SQL Server 2000 - [Elective] Administration and Support.