

Student Success Story:

Olivia

Olivia came to study with us after being made redundant by her retail employer. She wanted to start a new career in office administration so studied our Introduction to Office Skills Diploma. As a result she found a position working for an oil company based in central Guildford before she finished her course!

“Thank you so much. I would still be in working in retail if it wasn’t for you.”

