

Student Success Story:

Angela is a mother with three children. She was made redundant and realised that she needed to update and learn new skills to get a job. She studied a number of our courses, including Medical Audio Transcription and subsequently got a job as a Medical Secretary at a local hospital.

“Studying with Pitman Training was the best investment I have ever made” - Angela